

WHAT TO EXPECT DURING YOUR VISIT AT LIFELABS

- Many healthcare facilities such as LifeLabs continue to require additional measures such as face masks, hand sanitizing, and COVID-19 screening questions.
- Depending on capacity limits of the facility, you may be asked to stand in a line outside the Patient Service Centre door.
- You will be greeted by one of our staff members and asked to present your requisition form and immigration documentation. Or, we may need to look it up if sent prior by you or your physician.
- Once we have your paperwork, we will process you in our system.
- Once we are ready for you, we will direct you to the appropriate area where a Lab Assistant will be there to perform the sample collection.

WE'RE HERE FOR YOU

With 129 locations across British Columbia to serve you

Prepare for your visit by:

- ✓ Finding the location nearest you on lifelabs.com
- ✓ Booking an appointment at your chosen location.

And don't forget to bring:

- ✓ Medical requisition form
- ✓ Identification such as
  1. Passport or
  2. Driver's License or
  3. Valid B.C Health Services card (if applicable to you)
- ✓ Any health services related paperwork indicating coverage based on visitor, immigration or refugee status:
  - Interim Federal Health Program (IFHP) Certificate of Eligibility
  - E-medical Referral Letter
